
Catch Bar Restaurant is inspired by the four elements of nature and their magic.

The bar takes a “minimal” approach and welcomes the character of Santorini.

Using the Earth element we discover textures, in the Air we meet perfumes.

The Water gives us the acidities and the Fire the deepness that we lack to create new experiences.

The ode of this list. The union of music with the taste and the emotions. The proof that everything isn't as they appear. The psychosynthesis of a person. A sensitive character hidden behind the mask of selfishness. Perfumes, memories and feelings inside this cocktail. And one unanswered question... What if everything isn't what you see but something else?
